above that interferes with an Employee's work performance or that creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

Prohibited discrimination and harassment includes, but is not limited to, the following behavior:

- Verbal slandering, ridiculing or maligning a person, persistent name calling that is hurtful, insulting or humiliating, using a person as the butt of jokes, or abusive and offensive remarks
- Written conduct, including voicemail messages, e-mails, text messages, or other written communication which conveys epithets, derogatory jokes or comments, graphic remarks, or slurs
- Visual conduct such as derogatory and/or sexually-oriented posters, photography, cartoons, drawings or gestures, or display of internet sites (including social networking sites)
- Physical conduct such as assault (or the threat of assault), intimidation, unwanted touching or sexual advances, blocking normal movement, or interfering with work performance
- Propositions or subtle pressure for sexual activities or persistent and unwelcome invitations for dates or other social activities
- Threats or demands to submit to sexual requests as a condition of continued employment, or to avoid some other loss, and offers of employment benefits in return for sexual favors

In addition, prohibited conduct includes denying an individual access to a common restroom corresponding to their gender identity or harassing an individual because of a gender transition. Prohibited behavior includes intentionally and persistently failing to use the name and gender pronoun that correspond to the gender identity with which the individual identifies, and which they have communicated to management and Employees.

3.2 Complaint Procedure

Company Personnel who believe they have been victims of, or witnesses to, discrimination or harassment of any type must report their concern to their immediate supervisor or manager, to a supervisor or manager within their department, to Human Resources, or to the Hotline at 00-1-8662074751 (charges may apply), as soon as possible after the incident.

Controlled Document Type: Policy

The report shall be specific and include the names of the individuals involved, the names of any witnesses, and any documentary evidence (e.g., e-mails, notes, text messages, or voicemail messages).

The Company shall preserve the confidentiality of complaints and allegations to the extent possible and disclose the details of those complaints only on a need-to-know basis. No action shall be taken that in any way penalizes an individual for making a complaint in good faith.

The Company shall take prompt action to investigate appropriately all concerns of discrimination, harassment, retaliation, or other conduct prohibited by this Policy. The person raising concerns shall be notified of the status of the investigation where possible.

3.3 Consequences of Conduct in Violation of this Policy

If the Company determines that this non-discrimination/non-harassment Policy has been violated, the Company shall take immediate and appropriate action. Depending upon the nature of the concerns and the result of the investigation, resolution may include informal/formal counseling, formal discipline, or termination of employment.

3.4 Policy Prohibiting Retaliation

The Company shall not retaliate or take any form of reprisal against any individual (whether a witness or the victim) who in good faith reports any discrimination, harassment, or other conduct prohibited by this Policy or who participates in an investigation into such complaint or concern. Any such retaliation or reprisal by a Company Employee, Manager or Supervisor is prohibited.

Retaliation may include, but is not limited to, treating differently any person believed or assumed to have reported a complaint or concern, or to have come forward with information about another person's complaint or concern, or subjecting them to different or adverse terms and conditions of employment.

Any individual who believes they have witnessed or been a victim of retaliation shall make an immediate report to Human Resources. In no case shall the Company tolerate retaliation. Any Employee, Supervisor or Manager who retaliates against another Employee or witness because of a complaint of discrimination, harassment, or other prohibited conduct, or because of participation in any investigation, shall be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment.
